General Information

Below is a list of many services provided by the Covina Police Department Records Division. Many of these services can also be provided online.

Traffic Citation Correction Signoff:□ Monday – Thursday: 7 am to 5 pm

Contest a Parking Citation: To contest a parking citation you can either complete a Request for Administrative Review Form (available in the police department lobby) or you may write a letter. The completed Request for Administrative Review form or letter contesting the parking citation you received, may be returned to the Covina Police Department lobby or mailed to the address listed on the back of your citation.

Obtain a Copy of a Collision Report:□ To obtain a copy of a collision report, you must first complete and submit a completed request form, or write a letter and submit it as instructed. Eligible report copies will be made available within ten business days of our receiving your request.

Obtain a Copy of a Police Report: To obtain a crime report, a written request for a copy of the report must be completed and submitted to the Covina Police Department Records Division. The request form is available at the police department, or a fillable online form is available below for completion. The form must then be delivered to the Records Division in person or by mail. Records personnel will contact applicants when their request is ready to be picked up, and applicants are required to respond in person in order to confirm their identity and complete the release. All submitted requests are reviewed, and approved or denied in compliance with the Public Records Act. The police department will respond to all submitted requests within ten business days. There are cost recovery fees associated with this process, which will be explained by Records Division Personnel upon request approval.

Vehicle Releases: Release procedures and fees vary depending on the reason your car was impounded. Impounded vehicles that are eligible for release, will only be released to the registered or legal owners, when vehicles are properly registered and insured, and a licensed driver is present to drive the vehicle. Vehicles being held as evidence, or that are 30-day impounds, may not be eligible for immediate release.

Impound Hearings: The registered owner of a vehicle impounded for 30-Days may request an impound hearing. Bring your identification in person to the lobby of the Covina Police Department. Impound hearings are conducted by Covina Police Department Watch Commanders. The Watch Commander will make a determination whether or not the impound was legal and proper in accordance with department policy and state law.

Registrants: Processed Monday - Thursday: 9 am to 5 pm. First time Sex Registrants must first contact the Juvenile / Sex Crimes Detective for an appointment before they register. Detective Tardif can be reached at (626) 384-5623. All registrants must have appropriate identification to register.
